

Finishing 'Carol' at 1AM

I'm in love with you
And I feel it all
Every look
Every glance
All the whispers and in-jokes
The whole dance
I'm in love with you
And how you are,
And the way you are
I want you to know,
I'm all yours
I'm all in
It's terrifying and new
And the paths I've walked down
Have made me something new
But different
Like how this is different,
And, oh, so good!
You make me want to be
And love myself
I'd already learnt how to
After so many years of disdain
But it's still nice
On top of it all
To feel your eyes on mine.
To feel your hand,
Palm down,
Fall and stay and rest
On my ankle
While we laugh with your friend
All the while
I know, and so do you,
That I'm in love with you.
