

Please Keep Looking At Me, And I'll Do The Same

All of the doubts
And flies in my head
Stay quiet and still
When I'm looking ahead
At you, at us
My brain understands
And feels connected to
A bigger truth
Than the one that I am

I felt the urge to look
And prayed you felt the same
That you wanted me
And saw things in me
That you wanted to keep Around

I feel reached for
And missed
I know I am loved
And kissed
I wish I was with you right now
Feeling your hip with my hand
Laughing at you, with you
And kissing your face.

I love being loved by you
And I want everything
I want to know it all
Your times and your dates
And all your stories
I want ourselves to be known.
